I went to school each day with Chris, he was always happy to see each of us.
He single us out and always asked, everything is fine with you.He was very busy with each reunion, and talked to everyone. He will be missed.

I have known Chris throughout our school years and also as a neighbor. He was always kind and caring. I'm so glad he was at our 60th class reunion. My golf skills are pretty bad, but he was always encouraging and made the game fun. He will be missed. Rest in peace, Chris. You were loved!

Chris was my neighbor. While on my daily walk, I met him while walking his beloved dog. He was the kindest person who never met a stranger. I looked forward to seeing Chris every day to have for our daily chats and laughs. I will miss those conversations and his smile that would brighten my day.-- Your neighbor and friend, Pamela
