“ To the Gonscak Family, Friends, Nieces, Grand children, Etc. I am deeply sorry for the loss of your mother Brenda, Cathy, Ron! I am truly saddened also! I feel I was also part of the Family, Brenda and I were neighbors and met each other in school! Ron was our paper boy delivering the Tribune, and Cathy gave me Guitar lessons, and Ann would let me eat all the wonderful bake goods she would bake everyday! My favorite was her Poppy Seed Roll., she always gave me one at Christmas. Anne and I had a special connection, She even invited me to the Whitney down town for her Birthday, in a Limo that her kids surprised her with, I was so honored. Every fat Tuesday I would bring over Paczki. I would leave it early on her porch, sometimes, she would be sitting at the kitchen table having her coffee and greet me at the door! I will miss her truly and all the talks, and visits we shared. She is now in heaven with her husband and kids, looking over us saying she is okay! I lived a good life. Love you Anne. May you R.I.P.
