“ Im saddened to hear such news, if you know brad, well i was the one with him when he lost his finger tips to a diabolical snowblower, i rushed him to the hospital, the doctor asked me to go back and find anything i could and bring it back, but all i had to put the parts of his fingers in was an aluminum foil rap that came on a hot ham and cheese sub. It still had cheese stuck on the inside packed with snow and what could be found. I know this may be odd for some of you, but that was me and brad and one of our crazy times together, rest in peace brother you are and will always be missed. Tim

“ Brad Truly loved his children. He used to always thanking me for being apart of their lives. He entrusted me to be an emergency contact for Allyson and Daniel. I remember we had our annual Thanksgiving and 4th of July Family gatherings. He was so excited about being apart of our functions. Although Julie and the kids were always invited he was so grateful on spending quality time us all. I will truly miss you Brad
