“ I was searching for truth in the mid 1990's had grown weary of people who called them selves Christians and were self righteous sinners with the moral values of dogs. I had read many strange and hate filled doctrines of devils, and couldn't find truth. I grew dejected and figured out that satan was too smart for me so I prayed for the truth, within 10 minutes I dug through a drawer full of videos tapes... I found a cassette tape I had never listened to called the faith of Abraham and another called the faith of God. 5 minutes into the tape I knew I liked his preaching style a few minutes later I knew God had heard my prayer I searched him out and got as many sermons as I could afford sometimes I'd listen to 5 or 6 sermons in a day only to have more questions, which he would always answer Biblically, what a Great Teacher, what a strong mind, what a caring Man, Totally dedicated to the Truth(one of our Lord's names) As human Heroes go he was the hero who shared the truth I had been seeking since I was a child and helped pull me out of the muck, and the mire. Conrad I know you're up there munching on that popcorn waiting to see the big grand finale see you soon Brother Conrad. Mary Dell hang in there you and Conrad were some of the most perfectly matched people I've ever known you'll always be in my prayers Love you Ben Fritzel

“ When I met Conrad and Mary Dell at first, it was at a weekend seminar that a friend had organised in late 1978. I taped the whole weekend and still have it (I think) in the recesses of the basement. He dutifully expounded the basic bible doctrines, but at that time most of it went over my head. I was less than babe. I believe it was the following year when Conrad and family spent spring and summer here and him labouring in the doctrine, but no fruit resulted at that time. That came about a few years later when pastor Ben Mott laboured at the work and resulting in a church being established in Alberta in 1983. Pastor Tim Boffy of Cincinnatty was one of the original members During 1979 Conrad and family lived in a half duplex that I had built but the rent cheque was put in the never collect collum. In one of my discussions with Conrad at that time I said are we not all christians? Me being RC, his answer was "Your Religion" and I felt a kick in the shins that was very painfull. That woke me up. One of the things that I had hoped for was to have the opportunity to do some chinwagging with Conrad and collect my rent cheque. Alas it was not to be, at least not untill we meet again on the other side. My sincerest condolences to Conrads family and all those of like minded faith in Michigan and elsewhere.

“ I was introduced to Conrad as a little girl over 30 years ago. He became the pastor of our church in Las Vegas, and our family loved him dearly. As a little girl, I had a strong fear of death. My parents took me to pastor for counseling, and he tried his very best to explain about it in the simplest form a child could understand. He seemed so calm about it. He would often say in the pulpit, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Conrad is now present with the Lord. Our family is praying for Mary Dell, Gail, and Christopher, and all of those deeply affected by the loss of a man that truly had a joy for Jesus. He always had such a wonderful smile on his face, was not afraid to cry in the pulpit. He knew he needed Jesus, and wasn't anything without him. Thank you, Jesus, for your love and mercy!

“ The last time I spoke with Conrad over the phone and we were closing out our conversation, he told me in his usual loving way to "knock Terrence upside the head for him with a frying pan." Of course he tenderly chuckled afterwards, as we knew that was his way of saying to give him a big o'l hug around his neck. - Suzi

“ Pastor Conrad Jarrell is the most influential person in my adult life. I count him as a Pastor, a teacher, a mentor, a brother and a friend... Like many, I came to know of Conrad by way of listening to Stuart Crane’s audiotapes — back in 1996. During that time, I listened to every sermon I could get my hands on. I was hungry for the Truth, and Pastor Conrad was the first person I ever heard preach it so well from the AV1611 King James Bible.

I remember driving back to work from my lunch break one night (I worked the night shift at the time), and hearing Conrad teach and preach on the Faith OF Jesus Christ. I had never, ever heard anything so amazing and it changed my Christian way of thinking from that night forward.

Two years later, Conrad baptized me into the Las Vegas Church. I will always cherish the memory of my early morning drives from California to Las Vegas, to be in the house of the Lord on Sunday mornings. Those times, worshiping and fellowshiping with the congregation, gave me such peace...

And the best part, was spending some alone time with a Conrad and Mary Dell after church. The warmth and hospitality shared with me was so very special. It was an honor to spend time in Conrad’s basement study, as he would share the Word with me and show me some of his artifacts he collected over the years. Books, tapes, pictures ... and most incredibly, I held an actual sulphur ball he brought back from his trip to Israel. It was times like these, that really solidified the existence of JEHOVAH ELOHIM...

As I set to depart from their house in Las Vegas on those very special Sundays, I always got hugs and Pastor Conrad’s “patented” farewell to me, “thank you, thank you, thank you...” God blessed me with the ability and opportunity to help support his ministry, and Conrad and Mary Dell we’re always so humbly grateful.

Pastor Conrad and Mary Dell, until we see each other at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb — where we’ll be “sailing pop corn boxes”, so to speak — I humbly say to you “thank you, thank you, thank you” for sharing your love of God and His True Church with myself and countless others...

“ Elder Jarrell was instrumental in my conversion to the LORD and His church. I was so blessed to be provided his basic bible doctrine series very early in my walk. His words, bible grounded arguments and strong passion will stick with me forever, LORD willing. At a time when so much of the world's version of "Christianity" just didn't jell, wasn't cohesive and didn't really make much sense, Conrad was the light in the storm - putting so many things together and talking about things that I'd never heard another Pastor talk about..things that should be central to a Christian's life, walk and devotion. In 2012, Elder Jarrell traveled to Lakeland, FL and made quite a first impression on us after having listened to his recordings for 2-3 years prior. He lived up to nearly every hope we had for the man who, in our minds, was a legend already. He was kind and genuine (broke down in front of the lectern several times during the bootcamp), spoke the simplicity of God's truth and left us hungry for so much more. In spite of so many of us being convicted, we still might have waited months or years to start a church if it was up to us babes in Christ. Elder Jarrell wasn't having it. He knew and I'm sure the LORD reassured him, there was enough hunger and desire in Lakeland to start a church and he wasn't going home without finishing God's work to do so. Before you knew it, all of our swim trunks were on, we were in the water and boom - our church had been started. He was quite an evangelist and unbelievable spiritual closer, doing it God's way. I have fond memories of hosting Elder Jarrell and Mary Dell at my wife and I's first home together in 2012. The late nights, pleasant discussions that went on for hours (and only ended at Mary Dell's insistence that he at least need a few hours of sleep) and the oat groats and chia seeds that my wife prepared for him that he raved about and all but demanded in future visits. It was such a special time for me. The church had just been started and here we were hosting such a special man and women of God. We didn't deserve such a neat opportunity to spend quality time with them but are so grateful we got it. Thank you Conrad (as we called you) for the love and example and fervor you displayed for us towards Christ. Thank you for the accurate and biblical worldview including all the stories (yes Uncle Conrad's bedtime stories), the history and the time you spent with us and for us as a young Church. Thank you for preparing Elder Henderson to take over be the perfect Pastor that us newbie's needed and have come to rely on in the Lakeland Church. And thank you for the friendship. Your smile, essence and passion for God has touched my heart and I pray it will remain with me for the rest of my time here until we meet again on the other side. Rest well Conrad, we love you and we'll miss you.

“ Pastor Conrad Jarrell was a great man, a man who converted me to the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ. He answered every single one of my questions, and I was convinced of the doctrine of election and that I was a child of God. He was the man who baptized me, Pastored over me for almost ten years, and he officiated my wedding. He was there with me in the hospital during an emergency C-section my wife was having, not knowing if my wife and/or child would survive, I wept in his arms as he held me tightly, comforting me. I wish I had spent more time with him during these past few years, but look forward to spending eternity with him in the presence of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I love you Conrad!

“ Elder Conrad had such a huge impact on so many of God’s people and enlightening them to the truth of the gospel. Of course we trace our Cincinnati Church heritage back to his and Pastor Tim’s efforts which John K. stumbled across over 21 years ago now! He now rests where our hope should, not in this world, but the one to come! We hope to see you soon. Hallelujah (God be praised)!

The two pictures are the original Cincinnati just freshly baptized church members and a recreation on our 20th anniversary last year. My wife Jess was pregnant in the original with our first daughter Priya. Last year She was pregnant with a girl again after having three boys and Conrad thought it was the funniest thing because almost every time he saw her she was pregnant! My wife dearly admired and loved you and found solace in your words and countenance as I believe all of us founding members of the Cincinnati church do. Thank you Mary Dell for hosting us on several occasions at your home in Las Vegas and for being such a strong, great, and stable support for this man of God that we will all sorely miss.

The loving,

“ Elder Conrad Jarrell had a huge impact on my life. I first heard of him about 22 years ago when he was pastor of the Las Vegas Church and started to listen to “tapes”. Over the years it has been dozens of them. A few favorites that come to mind are “Introduction to Christian Philosophy” I remember thinking at the time. Why doesn’t everyone teach this. Others are Basic Bible Doctrine, Unconverted Elect, Ishtar’s Day, and many more. I have all the books he has written but admit I have not gotten all the way through the Ever Wars.

Elder Jarrell has been a good friend and mentor, he always took the time to see how I was doing and would answer any question and could go as deep on most any topic whether it was religion, history, philosophy, mathematics, logic, Jesus, the KJV and so much more. I enjoyed the times spent together, being in his home office, going through his extensive library, spending time with his lovely wife Mary Dell.

He had done an in-depth study on the Name of God so I asked him if he would do an online study on this topic, Jehovah or Yahweh. He asked me to run it past Pastor Mott and I am so glad I did, especially now. We did a zoom and he dug in pretty deep and surprise surprise, kept it to just under an hour. (those that know Elder Jarrell know that this alone is pretty close to a miracle). It was packed with history, facts, truth and Conrad humour.

One example: “Anyone with the sense of a chicken” haha.... After a friend in North Carolina that heard the study said, “Y’all must have some smart chickens up there.” This was the last public bible study or church service he did. Very grateful that he did this and we now have it.

I thank God for him, and for the Grace of God that I was open to his teaching. I will miss his smile, his love his example. Grateful that much of his work is recorded.

I pray for Mary Dell and their children. Hugs from us across the border in Canada.

Until we meet again..

“ I will miss Conrad very much. What a dear man he was. A wonderful teacher, pastor, friend and father to me, my husband Bill and our son Mason. I am sad that we can't talk to him now but I know he would want us to be happy because he is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We love him very much and we will see him again.

I loved his preaching. When we arrived at church we always sat in the front. I paid attention. I admit I needed to hear the sermon and lesson being taught. It was as though God was speaking directly to me. Again, I paid attention. I was not only a hearer of the word I was a doer. The words jumped out of the page at me while reading and studying. God chose a wonderful man to teach his word. I am blessed God led us to his True New Testament Church and his true word The Authorized 1611 King James Bible. Conrad did a wonderful job for God. He always told us to "go home and verify what I am teaching you". We did. He was spot on every time. Conrad wrote several books that I love to read over and over. We could call him anytime if we needed him. He was always available for us.

The three of us will miss all the special times we spent with him and Mary Dell. We love you Mary Dell very much. I pray that God will watch over you and keep you strong.

“ I met and shake hands with Conrad just back in 2017 but I know about him and his preaching of the Word of God since around 2000 while he was a pastor in Nevada. I was impressed by the cleanliness and logical manner he exposed the truth of the Bible. I became a follower of his sermons and listened to all of them while they were available. After knowing of the Detroit Church for a while it was a delightful surprise to find out Conrad was a member and I'd get another opportunity to hear his teachings on the Bible. Praise to The Lord for the blessing bestowed upon the Detroit Church and me through the life of Conrad. I look forward to meeting again with Conrad when our Lord Jesus Christ calls me to His presence.

“ My heart aches as I grieve and mourn the passing of Elder Conrad Jarrell.

There is no doubt in my mind that I would not be who I am or where I am in my walk with God if not for Elder Jarrell and all of his teachings. I used to joke that he joined me at WalMart, at Publix, in my car, and in my kitchen as I cooked because I would devour the audios as quickly as I would get them. Everywhere I went, I listened to his teachings.

Through all he taught me, I lived out Romans 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Because of Elder Jarrell, I began my journey of orienting myself to God's inerrant word and thereby resisted being conformed to this world. I also was forever changed by being transformed as my mind was renewed by his teachings. Most importantly, I learned how to proved what is that good, acceptable, and perfect will of God. The depth of my gratitude is beyond what words can convey.

He came down and preached the gospel, allowing us to hear truth and respond by forming our church. He baptized many of us into the church (tears of gratitude are flowing now). He brought our now-Pastor, Pastor James Henderson, into our lives so we could affirm Pastor's call.

The life I live now - and love and value tremendously - was shaped by so many decisions made by Elder Conrad Jarrell out of obedience to God. He continues to inspire me to walk obediently and humbly with the Lord.

Mary Dell, Elder Mott, Detroit Church members of like and precious faith - please know my heart grieves deeply and mourns with you as you feel the tremendous loss and remember all Elder Jarrell was - and is - to you. His legacy is in the form and shape of each of us forever changed by his teachings.

2 Corinthians 1:3-5.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

I pray for God's mercy and comfort to lay on each of our hearts and minds today as we share our memories, pain, and joy at remembering Elder Conrad Jarrell with each other.

With God's Love,

“ I have listened to hundreds of "Tapes" by Conrad Jarrell over the last 20 years, have the books he has written. Early on the series on "Introduction to Christian Philosophy" had a huge impact on my thinking and discernment. I thought why is this not taught everywhere. Another favorite was called Ishtar's Day. Basic Bible Doctrine and many others. Just a month ago he did a bible study on a topic I asked him about over and over. The Name of God, Jehovah or Yahweh. So grateful he did this and it was his last public sermon or bible study.

Elder Jarrell had a big impact in my life. I loved sitting and asking questions or going to his home in Michigan and going through his library and talking about history. Now I regret not doing it more often. We always think we have time.

Now because of the "lockdown" we cannot attend the funeral as we cannot cross the border into the US.

I pray for Mary Dell and Conrad's family. He is in peace and in the presence of the LORD Jehovah he served so faithfully and to the best of his ability.

Until we meet again my friend...

“ Elder Conrad Jerrell the first real man that showed me the truth. I was introduced to him after an 8 year quest to find God's Church. It took 5 years to just to find the true word of God, the KJB. We shook hands, he and Mary-Dell greeted me into their home. I said; I have questions; "I am here to use this KJB as my authority and will use it to question you about many things." "I have talked with many priest and pastors that seem to not agree with what this book says," I told him. Conrad replied saying; "sit down my son and we will reason from the scriptures." As we sat at the dining table I was unable to use it against him challenging him any which way. He had another verse and another verse that we kept agreeing on. From then, I started to go and listen to him preach. Shortly after, I was baptized by Pastor Conrad. He was a man that I will always have great respect for and his beautiful wife was as sweet as apple pie. He took me and showed me what it takes to read the scriptures and strive to be a real man. I loved him like a father and he loved me back. I will miss calling him up and just shooting the breeze about life. I know deep down Conrad will be on that shore to greet me when I cross. I know that, and that is what brings much joy.

Bill Hengler - September 09, 2020 at 10:37 PM

“ I am sure Conrad has already found out {since passing over} about how wrong he was in being so judgmental regarding some of his flock in Las Vegas. He caused me a lot of pain and suffering and regret that I ever joined the church there. I do send my condolences to the family and church members there that found value in his teachings. May he rest in peace. Kay Glick

“ I'm sorry Kay that you've never found it in your heart to forgive and move on with your life. It's not healthy nor edifying to hold onto bitterness. Let it go, it's over! I did and I've never regretted it, trust me...

“ When I first met Conrad we had just been invited to the Las Vegas church, he asked if me and my family would like to do a Bible study, here said "we're gonna learn you the real Bible" all of my family and I we're baptized by Pastor Conrad, and I consider him the reason I have any faith or belief in me, he dragged my hurt heart through a messy divorce, biblically, and blessed a new marriage with a godly wife, and baptized her as well, I will forever have his voice in my head and his smile in my heart, rest in peace Pastor, until we meet again.

Johnny Vigil - September 09, 2020 at 04:45 PM

“ I didn't know Pastor Jarrell personally, but have been listening to his sermons for many years from here in California, where I belong to a Primitive Baptist church.

I have great admiration for his zeal and passionate love for the Lord Jesus Christ.

This is indeed a great loss for the Detroit Church and all that loved him.

Conrad Jarrell has had a tremendous impact for the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ- even when he may not have known it (due to the internet and the ability to share sermons and outlines online).

I am thankful for his ministry and that of Ben Mott, for their great teaching ability and the amount of time and energy they have poured into the Scriptures, for the conversion and edification of the saints.

Praying for comfort for His church family/wife/children.

“ Mary Dell, Pastor Mott, Church family and friends, as each chord that binds us to this world is severed gravity weakens till it can no longer hold us here. Today, bands were loosed and heaven became nearer for us all. Neither miles nor social distancing guidelines can separate the hearts of God's children who unite in prayer as we unite with you all.

Rick Allen - September 09, 2020 at 12:59 AM

“ Revelation 14:13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

Brother Conrad was a passionate lover of Jesus Christ who was not afraid to stand up for truth no matter who opposed him. He was willing to oppose the perceived "wisdom" of an entire denomination because key aspects of their "truth" was not found taught in Scripture. His bold stand for the truth he documented for young ministers with the key passages to justify that stand. What a legacy!

Brother Conrad was concerned about any lowly believer, anxious only to share the truth of Jesus Christ. I remember many weekends over the first year after my conversion when he generously shared many hours on Saturdays to replace my Presbyterian dross with Biblical gold. He was kind and always ready to answer any sincere question.

He will be missed by those who are indebted to him. We look forward to seeing him with other loved ones when we are all assembled together to love and adore the Great Apostle, Savior, and Friend of sinners Whom he preached, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Newell Eastland - September 08, 2020 at 11:00 PM

“ Conrad was more than like a father to me, he was my father in the ministry; he was my and my family's pastor for almost 25 years. I owe so much more to him than I could ever repay. He taught me how to study the Bible; he taught me how to outline sermons; he taught me about primary meanings; he taught me how and when to preach and he taught me when to shut up.

And when the Lakeland Church called me to be their pastor, he arranged the ordination, laid hands on me, prayed to God to help me, and sent me on my way. He also slipped me a 3x5 card and told me to always keep it in my breast pocket, which I do to this day. It says, "anything that goes wrong in the church - it's your fault." I have lived long enough to see the brilliance in that statement; and to know that it would take 10 ordinary men to fill Elder Jarrell's shoes.

We didn't always see eye to eye on everything but we always saw eye to eye on the important things. I loved this man dearly; I will miss him constantly; and I am a better man because I was blessed to know him in this life; and I will see him again one day on the other side of the veil in the next.
