“ What a loss of such an amazing person that brought so much happiness to everyone he came into contact with. My wife Alyssa and I send our thoughts and prayers to Aunt Karen, Cindy, Kevin, Christie and everyone suffering from this loss. I am so thankful that Uncle Dennis is out of his pain and suffering and has his new body in heaven. He is now reunited with all of the family and friends that have gone before him in the faith.

I will forever look up to him as a person that led a faith-based life and was a truly devout believer. He set the example for all of us on what it means to be a Christian despite going through some really bad things in life. On the contrary, those things just made his faith stronger. I'll never forget all the jokes from him and Uncle Fran, two of the funniest people I've ever met, especially when they were together. They were each other's best friends and now they are reunited again. I am looking forward to the day when I see you both and their sister, my grandma Carole again. Love you guys always.

“ I've known Dennis for forty three years. We worked together for thirty four of those years. He had such a wonderful dry sense of humor. Him and I would tell the same old corny jokes over and over again to anyone who would listen Dennis had a very strong faith and we would have some very deep conversations about our beliefs sitting out on the dock at work.

When times were slow we would sneak into the wood shop and work on his latest version of what he called "the worlds best birdhouse. Dennis actually worked with my father and my son, as we are a three generation family of workers at General Dynamics. Our family will truly miss Dennis, he was definitely one of the best people I ever worked with. He was a good friend.

Rest In Peace my Friend,

“ As kids, Den was 5 yrs. older than me, so him and Fran was always with each other, they seldom had me around, cuz I was spoiled, they use to say. Some fond memories of him are when we use to live on the farm. Seems like we were always outside, playing in the barn, or grainery. we had a dogs, rabbits and chickens, they didn't like all the chores that went with all those! Of course, I was not helping them, cuz I was spoiled! I really don't remember fighting or arguing with him, he had a big heart even then. I guess my best memories would be as an adult, maybe cuz I remember more. The best description is we we're ALL TOUCHED BY AN ANGEL! A huge whole has been made, but will be filled up agin when I get there!

Love and prayers to all!

“ Hi Peg, I am so sorry that I couldn't make the funeral service, but I just wanted to let you know that I have been thinking about you and your family ever since I heard about the loss of your brother. I know what you mean about a huge whole. I lost my brother, Jim when he was only 57 years old and I still miss him. He was nine years older than me, but we were really close. I know that we will get to see both them again in God's kingdom, along with our parents and other loved ones we have lost through the years. I always remember Dennis as being nothing but a very kind and welcoming person. I'm sure he will be missed by everyone.

God bless you and your family through these trying days.

Wow...It has been a long time!

Love and miss you, Dave

“ Some of my great memories of Dennis were at family gatherings with Dennis and Fran playing and joking around. As we all got older I did not see a lot of Dennis but I do remember him as as good man with love for his family.

My heart goes out to his wife, Karen and family.

You will be missed cousin.

With love from your cousin, Karen

“ Uncle Dennis was a kind gentle man with a heart of gold. He loved with all of his heart & will truly be missed by all. -Sending love & support to my dear cousins, his children that he held so close to his heart & instilled the same sweet & caring nature, Christy, Kevin & Cyndi. To all of his beautiful grandchildren he was so very proud of & loved to his core. To my Aunt Peg & Uncle Don, his siblings that meant the world to him, I love you all! He was the perfect example of a family man & nothing brought more joy to him than his family. No words can define what he meant to those fortunate & blessed to call him Dad, Grandpa, Brother, Uncle, Cousin & Friend. We love you Dennis & will always remember your love and the positive impact you have made in us all.
