“ Words cannot express the sadness that we feel from the passing of Papa Fletcher. I had the honor of getting to know him over the past few years, and it was truly a joy witnessing the love he felt for his son, Mark. The relationship he shared with Mark was so special, and was exactly the way a relationship between a father and his son should be, filled with love, laughter, and respect. I loved to just sit back and listen to his stories from the past as he reflected, and laughed, as he shared his life experiences with us. He had an infectious smile and always welcomed me with open arms (thank you Papa Fletcher!). He was a planner, and had a stellar work ethic, and I quickly realized what a positive impact he had on Mark. His silly jokes and sarcastic humor always made me laugh, (Mark too!), and is something I will truly miss. Papa Fletcher, your absence will truly be felt, because you were, and still are, truly loved. Thank you for being a great father to your son, and also for being his friend. We take comfort knowing you are with your maker and you have been fully restored, until we meet again, we love you very much! Jen

“ Deb, Brad, Bradley and Markus, Sue, Mark and Dolly and all of the Richardson family. I'm sorry for your heartache and no words will soothe but know you are so blessed to have each other. You have a strong faith in God and family chain and you will hold each other through your loss of a loving man. I've not seen a love of a Father that you showed Deb. My heart hurts for you. Love to all of you

“ Mark, Debbie, Sue and Dolly,

Please accept my condolence. Your Dad was a wonderful, warm and caring man. I am grateful I had the opportunity to know him. One of the first memories of Jim was when the three of us went on that fishing trip. You and I were teenagers, I'm not even sure if we had our licenses to drive. I remember we took turns rowing the boat, trying our best to catch fish, while your Dad enjoyed a couple of beers. I think at one point your Dad had us looking for alligators. We didn't catch fish that day, but we did catch wonderful memories.

I loved the twinkle in his eye and his warm smile. He always made me feel at home. I often admired the relationship you and your Father had – best of friends! What a wonderful example of the right relationship!

Your Dad is no longer in pain. He has a new body now and is much stronger than ever before. Praise God for His mercy, grace and promises!

Love you,

Mario
