“ Our deepest sympathy. We will miss not talking to Kay while grocery shopping in Hollywood Market. Also when out walking on our street.

“ I was Kays hairdresser for many years. She loved old classic movies and some of the newer ones as well. She never missed the academy awards, one of her favorite movies was Walk the Line with Joaquin Phoenix.
She was a very loyal client and friend, she was very patriotic and outspoken. She believed for fighting for what was right. and just. She was smart and feisty and will be sorely missed.

“ As we age, it becomes more difficult to lose family members. Aunt Kay, my mom's sister, was much like my mom... she had a lot of spunk and always told you how she felt. Honest and caring that's my thoughts. She'll be missed by many including me. My sympathy and thanks to my cousin Sherry for helping her during her last days. Joan Sparks

“ So sorry to hear about Aunt Kay. Although I didn't know her very well I so appreciated the kindness she showed my Dad when my Mom, Edith, her sister, passed away. I see a trait in the Anderson family that I now know existed in all of them and that is honesty, caring and spunk. Blessings to all of you.
