Lee won a multitude of awards for his service including two Meritorious Unit Commendations, five Army Commendation Medals, and the NATO Medal for exemplary service and performance during Operation Iraqi Freedom II and VII, among others.

Outside of work, Lee had many hobbies and will be remembered dearly for his sense of humor and love for playing chess, tennis and soccer. “ My sweet brother Lee. My heart aches and aches to see you and talk with you. You are the best brother that any sister could ask for. You were a strong beacon of light for me and many others. You have given the world so much of yourself and we were the lucky ones to have known the beauty of your heart, so kind, gentle, generous, and loving. I am a better person for having had you in my life on earth and I thank you for all the gifts you have given this world. I don't know if the tears will stop falling. I love you so very much and will miss you and think of you each day until we see each other again.

“ To Gale and the entire Hercula family, my heart goes out to you. I knew Lee growing up, especially in high school (what a great tennis player!), and also from being friends with Ryan and Rachel. He was a kind, smart, clever, funny, and genuinely nice guy with a warm personality, making him a joy to be around. His smile was contagious. He leaves behind a void felt by so many who knew and loved him, and he will be dearly missed.

“ Rachel I cannot begin to tell you how Steve and I are feeling right now. There are no words. I know in my heart Rachel that that kind of love cannot be broken even by death. He is just a breath away.. What an amazing man he was to accomplish so much in such a short period of time and to touch so many people's lives as I have read here in the memories. I wish we could say something to make you feel better, to know that this horrible grief will get better as time passes. But the truth of the matter is it's always going to be there.. it'll always be that empty place in your heart that only he could fill. But a part of that empty place will eventually be filled with love and memories that you were so blessed to have. And I know one thing for certain... he will be watching over you every moment of every day. We love you.

“ Dear Gale, It is impossible to imagine the intensity of heartbreak you are experiencing. My deepest heartfelt sympathy goes to you and your entire family. I hope that you can find peace knowing that Lee was a bright light in so many lives. His smile alone could make a person feel better, not to mention is wonderful dorky sense of humor. I remember going to the casino with Lee and Rachel and having the best time laughing. You taught him how to love, be kind and care for others (and cats). I am sorry that the world caused him so much immeasurable pain. He is gone way too soon and I have to believe that he is truly resting in peace now. So much love to you all, Debi Bailey

“ My sympathies go out to your entire family. I met Lee once and he left a lasting impression. He was funny, kind and you could tell he had a big heart. Our family loved having him and Rachel over for the holidays. I'm so sorry to hear about your loss and I'm sending you positive thoughts during this difficult time.

“ Gale and family
It is hard to find the words to express my condolences. As a friend and a mother myself, I can't wrap my mind around what you may be feeling at this time. Over the years, I have watched each of your children grow and mature into adulthood. Lee was always stood out for me. That wonderful smile and the goofy laugh always gave me joy. I especially loved his genuine compassion for others. He was always so giving to others, asking for nothing in return. Looking back on the times you, he and I spent together makes me feel lucky and proud to have known such a beautiful spirit. I am sorry that he had to endure such pain and wish I could have been more helpful. I will truly miss his precious, soft spoken conversations and pray that he may rest peacefully in his eternally life.

I love you Lee
