

Millie & Frank Curatolo

February 4, 2019 - February 5, 2019

Millie and Frank Curatolo, who passed away on February 4 and February 5, respectively, at the ages of 82 and 86 years old, each passing away with their three beloved daughters by their side. Frank served his country in the United States Air Force, and while he was stationed in Virginia, he met the love of his life, Millie Saunders, while she served her country in the Civil Air Patrol. On June 2, 1956, the two became one and were married. From there, it was hard to separate the two. Family was always a top priority to the both of them. They were blessed with three beautiful daughters, who have remained extremely close. Frank worked for many years at Chrysler, where he retired in 1982. Millie worked for many years as a waitress. In retirement they enjoyed looking after their grandchildren. Millie enjoyed sewing and gardening, and Frank was an avid sports fan and animal lover. He loved sharing his wit with all who met him, and Millie was the perfect Gracie to his George Burns. They both were involved in the 1st Michigan Colonial Fife and Drum Corps. Millie and Frank were blessed with wonderful care takers, including their family at Sunrise Assisted Living.

Frank and Millie are survived by their children, Donna (Mike) Tibbits, Sue (David) Tschirhart, Kathy (John) McDonagh; grandchildren, Nicole (Jeff Rudd) Toutant and Jacob (Tamra) Roth; step-granddaughter Brianna Willey; Frank's sister Betty Potvin and Millie's siblings Elsie Northup, Johnny (Dot Ann) Saunders; many nieces, nephews, grand pets and countless friends.

“ My thoughts are with the Curatolo family over the loss of Frank & Millie. I never had the pleasure to meet them but from all the comments here I can see that they lived and loved well.

“ What can anyone say that knew these two fabulous love birds. May they enjoy Paradise together for eternity. May God comfort all the loved ones in this moment of sorrow. Rejoice in knowing Frankie is chasing Millie once again.

“ was frank and Millie's caregiver at sunrise. I remember the first time I met them, he asked me if I was Italian and I said yes. And he applauded. Him And Millie were like an older version of my own parents. I always left their room smiling or laughing. When we had entertainment downstairs, Millie and frank were front row center. Somehow even though I was up on the balcony, Millie would always find me and sing to me from downstairs and wave to me. They were so amazing. The best was when frank called me his fourth daughter and his family went along with it, with his daughters calling me 'sister'. And he also called me their angel. I loved them like family. And when I visited them near the end, it felt like I was visiting as family and not as a worker. When they first came to sunrise I remember frank saying he couldn't eat without His bride and always had to be by their side. As much as I miss them both, and as different my job is without them, I couldn't be happier for their ongoing love for each other. I have a lot of funny and heartwarming memories with them and I am just grateful to have known them.

“ There is not enough room to tell every reason why Frank and Millie were so special but they are a large part of the person I am today. Not only was Millie my moms best friend and there for her through good and bad but she truly was my second Mom. There was always a certain feeling of security around them and watching them, you would learn about amazing love. It is no surprise that they left this world the same way they lived their life, together. Thank you for your love and support for so many years.

“ My grandma and grandpa were something special. I of course always knew this was true. But I didnt know how true it was, till we lost them. That love, that utter devotion to each other was not lost on anyone who knew them. My papa was a character. Funny i never thought of them as "old" because they were just so full of life. I would always chuckle when he would look around at sunrise and say "ohhh coley, look at those old people!" And we would all laugh. My grandmother was so giving. She cared more about her family then herself, and she couldn't help it. That love they had, that doesnt happen too often. How blessed I was to see it first hand. To feel it. I truly know in my heart that my papa couldnt go on without her. I cant imagine one without the other. And now, I never will have to. This whole time, with my grandmother sick, I would say "poor papa, what is he going to do without her" god spared us all from ever having to even tell the other one that they had gone. While this is the best possible way it could have gone for them, me, being the selfish grandchild I am miss them terribly and just want them back. They were the best. My life was better with them in it, and I will honor them with that kind of outlook on life. Love, big. Give of yourself, and when you think you cant give anymore, give a little more. Be like my grandparents, and be that person who makes everyone know that they are in the presence of something special. I love you papa and grandma. I miss you already.

“ What a great aunt and uncle! So many memories so much love The game we made from the pizza box. The Detroit Lion gifts the romance books and the love so much love. I can't imagine losing both parents my heart goes out to the family. Aunt Millie properly told Uncle Frank to come on I can't do this without you. So he had to go and look after his beautiful bride. Plus Millie was very good at getting her way.
