“ When I first met Shirley she stole my heart! She was so fun and always making us laugh when we got together to celebrate and play cards. My Mom had a true friend in her. She even let us dress her up with silly glasses, hats and feather boas and let us take pictures of her! I will miss our visits but I am glad this sweet, gentle soul is not suffering. I will always cherish my memories of her.

My deepest condolences to all who lost her, especially my friends Robert, Debbie, Pam and Yvonne.

With love,
Laura Kuhn

“ Shirley was a true natural to fit in with our family. She had the same kind of dry sense of humor that kept us in stitches many times. I called her a lot to let her know when the Tigers were playing and she humored me by saying oh I'll put it on. And we would have laughs together even if there was nothing to talk about. She was a true joy and a wonderful woman. I'm glad I had a chance to know her. Now she will be with her other family and will rest in peace. My heart goes out to Robert as I don't know if the rest of her family. With lots of love Linda

“ Laugh about! I'm gonna miss her I am sure she is with I loved ones. I'm saddened she is gone but life had not been the best with all of the restrictions at Fox Run. At least now she is free. I feel for her family, you lost a jewel. I have my memories. Peace and love Linda

“ Shirley Cook became Shirley Kuhn's (my Mom) best friend at Fox Run. Well Shirley Cook had no idea all those years ago that she was going to gain four new "Daughters" She became a part of our family with Sunday parties & card games. Those days of having a meal together & playing cards were so full of laughter & fun I will cherish all those fun times forever. She was such a dear friend to our Mom & would make it a point to come visit her in Rose Court. She was there with all of us the last day we spent with my Mom on earth. So I am sure they are going to be enjoying time together in the arms of the Lord in Heaven. I bet they take him on in a game of cards- as long as he tells her what cards to play...she was a Fun Loving Stinker at the card table lol We Love You Dearly Todd & I will forever think of you with Cheers & a Smile. Love Roberta
