“ Wish I would have been notified of my brother's passing as well.

The forgotten sister - June 25 at 04:05 PM

“ I first met Tom and his family back in 1982. Right from the start of our friendship, I knew what kind of person he'd be. I will never forget the good hearted and selfless person Tom was. He impacted my life, and the lives of others in a way that is unforgettable. The sudden loss of a beloved friend, husband, and father is truly hard to put into words. However, I am humbled to have had his presence be a part of my life. He was more than a friend to me. He was like a brother and even a father figure at times.

Tom is the one who got me started at Ford Motor Company. He was always a giving individual. Whether it was to borrow a tool from him, or even simply when he and Carol would bake some holiday cookies to give to my family. Tom always got a kick out of how much I could eat when I was younger. When we would go up to Tony's restaurant by Birch Run, he'd always make a bet with me to pay for the lunch if I could finish eating the giant portion. One time I'll always remember is when Tom went out of his way, and made me a giant sub. It had to have been maybe three or more feet long with at least forty pounds of meat on it. I couldn't imagine how much money he spent to make it, but I do know he made it for me out of the kindness of his heart. Me and my family ate sub for days after that.

To wrap this up, I guess I just want to say thank you Tom. You were one of my closest friends. My life wouldn't have been the same without you, and I am glad to have met you. Tom, rest easy and in peace. Until we meet again my dear friend. I love you.
