

Marvin Dendekker

December 31, 1951 - May 13, 2026

"Marvin" Adrian Dendekker

Marvin, age 74, went to be with his Lord and Savior on May 13, 2026. Born the youngest of 10 children on December 31, 1951, he was always grateful for his Christian upbringing. He is survived by his loving wife Anne-Marie with whom he spent 30 years of marriage travelling, working and worshipping together as teammates. He also leaves behind his son Nicholas (Miranda) Dendekker, daughter Rose (Joel) Rupke, and three grandsons, Kodi, Luke and Owen, who he loved dearly. He will also be greatly missed by many extended family members.

Marvin dedicated over 40 years to the automotive industry with the past 26 years at Flex-N-Gate. He built a distinguished career that was defined by hard work and mentoring people he worked alongside worldwide. Marvin lived a life marked by thoughtfulness, love, and generosity to those around him, and his faith in Jesus Christ did not waiver in sickness as he continued to share the gospel message and show Christ's kindness to those he came in contact with.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Marvin, when they bought 51% of ddm plastics. At first I was leery, then after speaking with him, learned he was a great leader, always had a listening ear, and gave good advise. I had great respect for him.
