“ I want to send all of you my sincere condolences in the loss of your loved one Al. Lossing a loved one to death is at times unbearably painful. God through his word the Bible can provide us with great comfort. 1Corinthians 15:26 "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." What comfort it is to know that God is going to bring death to nothing! The hope of a resurrection can bring us great comfort. John 5:28,29a "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, " Sincerely, India
