“ Just seen Al's wife Caroline has passed away and read wife of late Albert Hessel. So sad to hear of Al's passing. Al and I went to school together from grade school through 9th grade. He was a great guy and I know his children will miss their dad and mom deeply. Rest in peace dear friend until we all reunite. Shirley Blair Medlin

“ Caroline,

I'm so saddened by hearing about Al's passing. My deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolences to you, Michelle, and the entire family.

Al was such a sweet and kindhearted person with only love in his heart. And I know how much he loved you. God truly has brought home a wonderful man.

I still remember the time we ran into you and Al at Leo's Coney Island in our neighborhood. You had stopped in for breakfast and I believe you were on your way out to see Michelle. Lori and I were having breakfast and saw you both sit down.

This memory will be locked in my mind forever with Al Smiling as he recognized me as I walked up behind you to kiss you on the cheek. Al Laughed and you, of course, didn't know who that stranger was Kissing you. How God granted us that chance to cross paths. Truly a blessing.

I know we will share many more smiles with Al when we are granted our privileged place in Heaven. But until then we will only have our vivid memories of a wonderful man with a huge heart.

With a Saddened Heart, I will continue to keep you and your entire family in my prayers.

“ Dear Caroline and Family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Al will always be remembered as a great co-worker, his sense of humor and great smile. We worked many visitations together and has been greatly missed already.

I am sorry that I will not be there for visitation or the funeral because I am out of state for a family commitment.

May the Lord grant you all peace.

Sincerely,
