“ My thoughts and prayers to Alberta's Family, known to me as AlJean, on the end of her earthly journey. I knew her and her Family in Jackson because she was a best friend with my Sister. Thru grade school, high school and later in life when I was appraised about her in discussions with my Sister. Family gatherings, Church picnics and the A&A Market; all good memories.
Let your memories of AlJean bring you peace and joy during these difficult days.

“ Dear Norm and family,

I am so sorry for you loss. I have known AlJean since the 6th grade at St. Stans. We have been best friends since high school. Although we took different paths after graduating we still kept in touch. After college we reconnected in Detroit and became roommates and grew even closer. Lots of memories there! She was the most caring friend to me. I will miss our get-togethers.

“ I'll never forget how sweet and caring she was to me and my family. Always felt so loved and included through acts of kindness but also gifts. I loved going to the dream cruise knowing we would get a chance to visit.
