“ I am so lucky to have known Aleene as my Aunt Aleene. She was a great person and always made me feel like she truly was my aunt. I am so fortunate that she was able to meet my son, Steven, last summer. I will cherish that memory forever and will continue on her love of books for children. That was always my favorite thing to look forward to was the books from uncle Geroge and Aunt Aleene. There is another angel looking down upon us. Love Always, Stephanie Hardesty Debbie Alexanders daughter
