

Alexis Gray

June 9, 1998 - February 23, 2025

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Alexis Gray, who left this world on February 23, 2025, at the age of 26. Alexis was born on June 9, 1998, and was a vibrant soul who brought joy, laughter, and light into the lives of everyone she encountered. Whether through her infectious smile, her boundless energy, or her unforgettable sense of humor, Alexis made an impact wherever she went, and she will be missed more than words can express.

She is survived by her loving parents, Lori and Alfonso Gray Jr., her precious son, Kenzo Gray, her dear siblings, Juan Clark Jr., Alfonso Gray III, and Andrea Jackson, her grandparents, Alfonso Gray Sr., and Valada Jackson as well as many cherished aunts, uncles, and extended family members. Alexis will forever be remembered by her best friends, Emily Thompson and Chelsea Love, who were like sisters to her, along with many other friends who will miss Alexis dearly.

Her family finds solace in knowing that she is now reunited in Heaven with her grandparents, Robert and Jacqueline Stewart, and other family and friends that have passed on.

One of Alexis's most remarkable qualities was her ability to light up a room. Whether she was making people laugh with her quick wit, sharing her vibrant energy with others, or cracking a joke to lighten the mood, Alexis had a natural gift for making every moment feel special. She loved being the center of attention, and it seemed to come effortlessly to her, as she was always the one people turned to for fun and laughter. Life with Alexis was always filled with joy, and her presence was a blessing to everyone around her. In addition to her spirited personality, Alexis had a deep love for food. There was nothing she enjoyed more than indulging in her favorite dishes, whether it was trying new restaurants or sharing a home-cooked meal with family and friends. Her passion for food was just another reflection of her love for life and all its pleasures. Her beautiful spirit will live on through her family and friends, especially her son, Kenzo, who definitely inherited her silliness, and all the lives she touched in her short, but impactful, time on earth.

May her soul rest in eternal peace, and may her light continue to shine brightly in the hearts of those who loved her.

A memorial gathering will be held on Friday, February 28, 2025, from 2-8pm with a memorial service at 6:30pm at the Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, 705 W. Eleven Mile Rd in Royal Oak. Please share a memory of Alexis at www.sullivanfuneraldirectors.com.

“ My sweet baby girl. I love you. I miss you. My heart aches for you. I just wasn't ready yet though I tried for months to prepare myself for this. You are definitely a true warrior. You were so brave to fight as long as you did. You made me so proud My sweet Lexi. Although I'm heartbroken I understand why you chose what you chose. Thank you sweet baby girl for leaving me with the best part of you. The most precious gift ever...Your son. I will love him, care for him and protect him with everything in me. I love you Lexi , I miss you so bad.
