“ Dear ones, she will be missed here, yes, but she was missed even more by the Father. Will always remember her leading praise and worship at MCCC and her gentle but firm spirit. Blessings of peace on each of you.

“ In my mind and heart I can see and hear Alice leading us in song. You were wonderful Alice. You could not be in a poor mood when Alice was around and we loved her. To God be the glory for your life and all the things that you did for so many of us.

“ Alice; I'll sure miss your bright happy spirit and singing. You and Pastor Harvey were the visual hope of what chirstian living is about. You especially provided a wonderful example of a christian woman, wife and friend. Good Bye until we meet in heaven. Love, Sharon

“ My prayers are with you all during this time. I wish I could be there for you Jan but since Frank is gone for the weekend in Philly I am the only one home with Mom. Know that I would have come to be with you and your family. We know that your Mom is in Heaven and that is a good thing! Jesus bless you all

“ I bet no one can think of Alice without thinking of a song. My bible is sprinkled with music notes that I drew next to scriptures we would sing at Macomb, scriptures that Alice put music to, tunes so simple and that's what made them unforgettable, just like Alice and her smile.

“ You will be missed Alice, by all who have known and loved you. Pastor always said "We'll be seeing you here, there, or in the air". We will see you again in Glory and join in with you and the other angels praising our Heavenly Father.
