“ Al was a cantor at the Shrine back when I was part of a rather large choir of 50 singers. I sang with him and enjoyed his friendship for many years. As I recall he also dabbled in painting. Just found out today, Feb 17th of his passing. So sad, all my best to Camilla and their children. I will always remember the days of the fabulous Bert Lord choir.

Sending Condolences to Al's wonderful family - Enjoyed many years of sharing in the Shrine Choir "experience" with Al. Great person and a creative soul - heaven has a new tenor for their choir, and a new artist for their ranks.--- Barb Harder Becker

“ he was one of the men I admired as a kid. I liked him and he always made me feel special when I saw him. as an adult I could appreciate his genuine kindness, humor, spirit and devotion to all of us. I will miss him on this plane but will know how easily I can reach him on the next. I imagine him sitting with my dad right now bemoaning the state of the Lions !

“ Dear Camilla, and all of Al's family,

Peace be with you as you mourn the death of your dear husband, father, grandfather and our special friend and parishioner, Heaven receives a good man, full of song and praise and faith! We will miss his faithful participation among us, and I am now asking that he bless all of us with his new life and presence with God, our Divine Mystery!

“ "No man is an island, entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. If a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a manor of thy friend's or of thine own were: any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bells tolls; it tolls for thee."

I cannot begin to explain what this man meant to me, but I will try. How many times did he fix my car? How many times did he step in and be a true father to me? He fed me, nearly every day, for over a year when I was struggling in college, struggling with 2-bit jobs that couldn't even pay my tuition...he FED me. He encouraged me, he built me up, he loved me. My life was richly blessed by Al & Camilla, and over the decades we never lost contact... because I loved them right back. Rest well, beloved of God. Rest well, deserving one. Know that your legacy continues in our hearts, in our minds and in the lives that you have fostered and shaped. Yes, this world is one human less, but heaven is rejoicing your homecoming Al. And I'll see you on the flip-side. Terrilyn Sturtz

“ Dear Liggett family,
My sincere condolences on the loss of your Dad, Allen Sr.. He was a great man, husband, father, and grandfather. I'm glad to have met him way back in 1975, and he always had a smile on his face and gave me a warm welcome. I'm holding you all in love and light, especially your Mother. I'm grateful that your parents had 72 wonderful years together. May that bring you comfort and peace.
Much love, Linda Baker
