“ I'm so so sorry Sally is gone. Yes, for some reason we have always referred to Amanda as Sally Sally Mander I have such wonderful memories and can only hold them dear and close to my heart. We had too many miles between us but somehow this didn't seem to matter. Your laugh, your accent we joked about, your sense of humor, your baking, and your love of life will be missed. I know you aren't really gone just on an extended trip. You left ahead of your time though and that pisses us all off down here. We are all selfish and wanted more time with you, much more time. I selfishly hurt and wish things could have been different. You have earned your wings Sally now fly. I love you, Aunt Kim

“ Johnnie and Debbie; I'm so sorry of you're loss. I feel the pain for you and can only try to imagine what you're going through. I hope I never will have to find out for sure. My heart goes out to you guys soooooo much. She is now your true Angel. Only God knows why he has plans for the special and young beautiful people. May faith, friends and family help you through this difficult time and forever in the future. Stay strong.

“ My darling "Lizzy", I shall miss our phone calls and your letters were a joy to me. Even though there were many miles between us, I felt you were here in my arms as I do now. This aching void in my heart will only be filled by memories of you and your lovely smiling face, your incredible laughter and your kind heart. The bond we shared will never die, as love never dies. Good night my sweet Amanda, I will see you soon. Always.....Your loving "Grand"Amanda, I'm so proud of the woman you became and the love you shared with your Grandma Jeanne, who you lovingly call "Grand". It has meant so much to her these past few years. I will be forever grateful for that and cherish our special times and memories. I'll miss you Amanda.....Grandpa Joe

“ The faithfulman Job expressed his confidence in God's power to bring the dead back to lifewhen he said: "If a man or woman dies can he live again?" Then he answers his own question with: "I will wait in the grave all the days of my compulsory service, until my relief comes. You will call, and I will answer you. You will yearn for the work of your hands?" Job 14:14, 15. May the family find comfort in God's desire to bring back to life our loved ones lost to death like Amanda "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing" 1 Corinthians 15:26.

“ To Amanda's family: I am so sorry for your loss. She was one of the most precious kindest people I was ever honored to know and work with, a true heart of gold. She and I kept in touch after she left CMH. Unfortunately as life goes, she is one of those that I wish I had more time for. She was a true Peer Support, not only to the people we serve, but as a friend. Her commitment to her own recovery as well as helping others recover was outstanding. The world has lost a strong advocate for the mentally ill/substance abuse population. I will always cherish the five day training we were able to attend together, where we were finally able to bond; regular work days were too busy. I will miss her laugh, her smile, and her quirky little sayings "I know, right?". I would do anything to be irritated with her again for constantly chewing on ice. : Miss you Chica, Kim Willis Peer Support Specialist at SCCCMH
