“ My dearest Amber, by now you have touched the face of God, we all are hurting from you leaving us, so we will need your help to get through this. You brought so much happiness to many many people while you were here. The memories of you are endless and the laughter you brought to all of us at our family Christmas parties will stay with us forever. God had his reasons for taking you from us and it's hard not to question him, I myself know all your worries and troubles are no more. Please look over us and help us to understand and guide us all to a better life.
