“ I got to know Andre really well over my career at the credit union, along with some of the family—always a great person to talk too and shoot the bull and talk about metal music and his pups. RIP my friend—thoughts and prayers are with your family!

“ Andre I remember way back in the day how you loved race cars, it keeps coming to my head about robotics. One thing is for sure you loved you baby girls! I could go without seeing you for 10 years and you would have thought we just seen each other yesterday!! You will be so missed by all. May you RIP You know Bonnie will take care of the girls and that grandbaby!! My thoughts an prayers are with them all! Thank you for always being so kind
