“ I had the pleasure of meeting Angie when I came to Detroit to meet my biological family. She was the sweetest, kindest person, and I wanted to adopt her as my grandma and take her home with me. I had a wonderful day celebrating her birthday with her. I will never forget her.

“ On too many occasions, Grandma Drader had to drive Chad and I to school because we had a problem with missing the bus. I'll never forget the walk of shame to her house on those mornings. She was always there to help.

“ We are very, very sorry for the loss of your mother and my wonderful friend of 41 years. We shared so many laughs good times together but I know that she is now truly happy as she is with her loving husband "Bud". I will miss her and think of her often.
