“ During my teenage years in the 60's I spent more time at the Dodero house than I did my own. Ann was my surrogate Grandmother so to speak, who loved her family more than her own life itself. She was always on the go, cooking, cleaning, watching the Grandbabies. A tireless ball of energy whose strong faith was first and foremost in her life. She was so very tiny, but so powerful as the Matriarch of her loving family. Thank you Annie for the endless night of sleepovers. I send my love to my dearest childhood friend Linda and her parents Paul and MaryJane. May you forever sleep with the Angels Grandma Dodero and may God grant you everlasting life in his loving arms <3

“ Dearest Noni, you will truly be missed. I have so very many wonderful memories with you. Noni was family to me and Aidan. I remember Noni's 100th birthday at Pasquale's & Aidan was so surprised that Noni was 'triple digits!' You were such an amazing presence in my life. Rest in Peace Noni. Xo
