

Ann Marie McDonald-Viditch

September 9, 1939 - December 30, 2023

Ann Marie McDonald-Viditch, 84, of Grosse Pointe Park, MI, passed away on December 30th, 2023, surrounded by her loved ones. She was born on September 9, 1939, the daughter of Joseph and Loretto (Hagarty) McDonald in Detroit, MI. Ann was married to the love of her life, Joseph Viditch, in Detroit in 1965. Their love story began while teaching history at Oak Park High School.

Ann was an accomplished individual with a double master's degree from The University of Detroit in both Math and History. Her dedication to education and passion for her subjects left a lasting impact on those she taught and inspired.

One of Ann's greatest joys in life was spending time with her family, especially the little ones who brought boundless joy to her heart. Her warm and nurturing spirit created a home filled with love and laughter, making cherished memories that will be forever treasured.

A true adventurer at heart, Ann's biggest passion was exploring the world with her family. Whether it was experiencing different cultures, savoring exotic cuisines, or simply marveling at the beauty of new landscapes, Ann found immense joy in these shared experiences that enriched her life.

granddaughter, Madelyn (Emily) Kerby; and her sister, Barbara Heilala. Ann's legacy will live on through the lives she touched and the love she shared with those fortunate enough to be part of her journey.

Friends and family are invited to pay their respects during the visitation at Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home, 705 W. Eleven Mile Rd.
