“ Dearest Liz, It still hasn't sunk in. I'm sitting here, Wednesday night feeling very emotionally and physically exhausted. But thinking how beyond tired you must be. It's too bad your mother couldn't be there over the last 3 days. She would have so enjoyed seeing everyone as well as be so touched to see all whom love you both. I loved that comment heard today that your mother is now with your dad. I know she has missed him so desperately, Can you imagine the reunion!!! It's just so bitter sweet!! It's thoughts like these that help ME get over my own selfishness. I hope you realize you will never be alone. We will be just a call away. I/we love you, Phil and Colleen

“ Our sincere sympathy to Liz for the loss of her dear Mother and to Ann's entire family. Ann was a very special neighbor and a good friend.
