“ To the Seefeld Family... Aunt Ann was a beautiful woman and a gentle soul who always had a smile on her face. Her words and her ways were always kind and gentle. She was a blessing to everyone she met. May God bless and comfort your family with the loving memories of Ann, and may she rest forever in the Joy of Jesus Christ our Savior. Aunt Ann will be greatly missed by all!!!! Love and Sympathy from Jim, Linda, Kim, Ryan, Amanda and Gideon Thero

“ Dear Seefeld Family, My dad received a call today that Ann had passed away...Dad is recovering from bypass surgery and unfortunately, my dear Mom, Bee Haffey, is living at the Sanctuary at Alexander in Royal Oak. She has severe dementia...very sad disease. I remember all those Amway years with fondness as I was growing up. I made many runs over to the Seefeld home to pick up and drop things off related to the business.I think I learned how to apply make up properly in the Seefeld basement!!! My mom really blossomed with her Amway business. Ann was a generous spirit and a great mentor. She will be greatly missed. I wish I could be there with all of you tomorrow, but unfortunately, I cannot...but I will be thinking of all of you and sending my prayers to you also. With much love and sympathy, Amy Griffin

“ Our sincere condolences to Uncle George, Meg, Steve, and our Seefeld cousins. Aunt Ann will be greatly missed. But now she is at total peace with the Lord and in a better place. It was a pleasure to see her one last time at Alice Seefeld-Green Gies' funeral. You will all continue to be in our prayers.

“ What better day to meet Jesus and all the saints in heaven than All Saints Day! Aunt Ann was an incredible gift to me and she taught me some very valuable life lessons. She loved everyone and always had a smile that enveloped those around her. I love her and will miss her! Aunt Ann, pray for us!!
