“ Hello, my name is Lyndsey. Even though we don't know each other I'd like to express my condolences for your loss. In the Bible there are many comforting scriptures regarding death and suffering. One of my favorite scriptures is at Revelation 21:4, which says- "And he God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." It's nice to know that someday on the earth, there will be no more suffering, pain or death. It may be hard to imagine the world without those things, but when God promises something, it always comes true. He can never lie. Another comforting scripture is at 1 Peter 5:7- "Throw all your anxiety on him, because heGod cares for you." I'm sure this is a difficult time for your family. Don't forget that God does care about you, and he loves you too. So tell him how you feel, he wants to know so he can help you and give you relief. The Bible has many other comforting scriptures, these are just two that I hope will bring your family hope, comfort, and encouragement. Take Care, Lyndsey D.
