“ For those of you who I or my sister and brother may come to miss sending a thank you to: We want you to know that we are so very grateful. We would not miss the chance to say that. Things seemed to get confused along the way, and we would not want to have your kindness be acknowledged. We will miss our Mom beyond words.

“ Anna: You left us too quickly. You were here the Thursday before your accident on Friday, along with our son, Randy and brother Frank. You kept repeating how happy you were to be with us on that day. Little did we know this was going to be our last luncheon together. We were discussing our next time together at the Avenue so we are going to continue those plans and meet soon. We will miss you very much but all of our precious memories will live on.

“ Dear Susan, Patti, and David - I remember Anna from many years ago at ROMC up until just very recently when we didn't see her so frequently. In later years it always amazed me how beautifully she dressed and continued to wear those high heels - while the rest of us were now in very unstylish oxfords. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this very difficult time. I am sorry but I will not be able to join you on Saturday - although I wish I could. Adele Kirkman

“ Dear Patti and The Entire O'Neill Family, I was deeply saddened to hear of Anna's recent passing. She was a very dear person who remained young at heart throughout her life. She was always my willing dance partner at many a party. As recently as two years ago she outdanced me on the dance floor! She was as spry as they come and no problem getting right down on the floor to get those alterations just perfect. She was always "one of the girls" when it came to Patti's circle of friends. We all felt thoroughly comfortable being ourselves in her company. She cared deeply for her family and friends and spoke of them often with regard and concern. What I like to remember most about Anna is that she was wise. She could provide good, solid advice on topics ranging from fashion to love. Anna lived a full and honest life. She will be remembered and missed by all who shared the pleasure of her company.

“ I met Anna about 30 years ago...I used to buy vintage clothing at Patty Smith's store and had my dresses altered by Anna. We enjoyed each other's company and a long term friendship developed. We went out about once a month for dinner and/or a movie. She took me to many restaurants I never knew about. Anna was always so sharp, so fashion conscious and very fashionable. I'd find myself calling her about food recipies, stain removals or to just chat about what was going on in our lives. She had spunk! She loved to dance. She often spoke about, the love of her life, her late husband and how they so enjoyed going out to dance. She talked about what a good life she had. I will miss her greatly; I feel fortunate to have known her and to be part of her life.
