IF you are considering sending flowers -- Nana made it very clear that she just wants you to come sing at church, hug each other always -- and that "flowers are beautiful but they just die". Please feel free to reach out to me directly for more info. With love and kindness, Natalie “ *Sweet, Sweet Annabelle.

The nicest and best neighbor anyone could ever have. I fondly remember how she would always give out 3 Musketeers candy bars every Halloween and save a few of the full-sized ones for my sister, Gina, Linda, and me.
She was also the one who's quick thinking called me an ambulance while I lay unconscious under my bicycle on the concrete.
She was like a second mother to me growing up and I'll forever cherish my Norman Rockwellesque memories of Parker Street, thanks to her.*
