“ Since I have known Mark I have heard so many wonderful stories and memories about his mother, Anne. Although I never had the pleasure to meet her, I knew her in my heart and what a wonderful mother she was. My thoughts are with the family as you grieve and celebrate this woman's wonderful life. “ I met Anne when I helped her sister Mary here in West Frankfort before she died. I looked forward to her phone calls and visits. She was such a supportive sister and it really brightened Mary's day to hear from her. I also came to appreciate phone visits with Anne each year near Easter when she would call to tell me she had put out the Pysanky (egg) I had once decorated for her. She would share little bits of her friends' and family's lives that she was especially proud of and would always tell what outfit she was planning to wear on Easter. She has surely been a blessing to many, especially to her beloved family and friends. I know they miss her. I do. Jane Perr

“ I remember growing up, Aunt Anne was always the hip fun and cool aunt. When my sister and I would come to visit or she came to our house, she would always take time to be outside with us whether it was shooting hoops or throwing a baseball around. She always made it a point to spend time with us. Aunt Anne always made us feel important and special. It meant a great deal to us and still does to this day. Aunt Anne was a wonderful, loving, caring and kind person. Truly an angel and a blessing from above. I will miss her very much, but will always cherish the loving memories I have of her and will hold them dear to my heart. May God Bless you and give you eternal peace and happiness.

All my love,
