“ Aunt Anne, you will be missed! When I recall long past memories I have to smile and inwardly chuckle. To know you was to love you, smiles and laughter were your constant companions. That's a hard act to beat!

“ The world has lost a lovely lady who ranked towards the top in my favorite relative category. I have many special memories of Aunt Anne going back DECADES. In the culinary department I remember her teaching me how to cook the most delicious breaded pork chops ever, before anyone worried about cholesterol! Then--- we enjoyed a number of lunches out sampling Italian dishes among others. A particular "favorite" experience was taking the train from Royal Oak to downtown Detroit and exploring the old J.L. Hudson's, which of course included lunch in their delightful dining room. That was my only downtown shopping experience in my youth and I relish the memory. Aunt Anne was full of good advice and what I considered to be "fascinating gossip". Wonderful stories of her life growing up with my mother and how she would tease my mother, Ruth Jane, when following Ruth's appendectomy, she would try to make her laugh by tossing cotton balls at her. I remember the "sisters" sharing the belief for a brief time that they must be adopted. So many warm memories that I will always hold onto and how grateful I am to have had the special times of fun, giggling and heartfelt sharing. My sympathies to all the Perkins and Williams family members for losing a wonderful lady, especially Ron, Corky and Ken. As Aunt Anne would say, "well, any hoo-ha", you will be missed!

“ We were saddened to hear of Aunt Anne's passing. She was a dear person and a master of the wisecrack, almost always followed by a burst of laughter. Our sympathies to Ron, Corky, Ken, Uncle Hal, Aunt Puzzy, and the rest of the family.

“ I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy to my cousins and all of the Perkins family. Aunt Anne was one of a kind. I have many memories of our times together, and not ONE was without laughter. She always tickled me with her humor, and even when I wasn't an adult she'd treat me as an equal - either that or she'd treat me like a princess when I'd don a fancy old green dress of hers with matching veil no less, and feed me green grapes while I watched Bozo on TV. Anne was a wonderful woman, and a VERY special aunt. I will miss her. My heart goes out to everyone whose life was touched and enriched by having Anne in theirs. Robin
