“ I am so proud of my aunt Ann's service with the Coast Guard during World War II. I remember seeing her military photo with her uniform and being really impressed. She was absolutely beautiful. I also remember her with a two piece bathing suit and a tan in our backyard when I was a kid. She had a real sense of humor and almost always a smile on her face, that I recall. She was a professional working woman and a very impressive role model for me. Her son Dane, is more like a brother to me than a cousin and it is because we had a lot of contact with Uncle Neils, Aunt Anna Mae and Dane. Rest in peace with your sisters. I love you.
