“ Hello, my name is Lyndsey. Even though we do not know each other, I'd like to express my condolences for your loss. This must be a difficult time for your family. I have found the Bible to be a great source of hope and comfort. One scripture that many people find comforting is at Isaiah 25:8, where it says- HeGod will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.....For Jehovah himself has spoken it." Jehovah God's personal name found in the Bible: Psalm 83:18 God will eventually swallow or take away death, sickness, pain, and tears forever. It is hard to imagine a time when there will be no more death and suffering, but when Jehovah promises something, it always comes true since it's impossible for him to lie. Another scripture that I find comforting is at 1 Peter 5:7- "Throw all your anxiety on himGod, because he cares for you." Because God cares about us, he wants us to tell him how we feel. He loves us, and wants to help us. So whenever we face problems and difficult things like losing someone we dearly love, God will be there for us and we can pray to him for strength to endure. I hope these scriptures will bring you and your family comfort, relief and hope. God cares about your family and understands your situation more than anyone else could. Take Care, Lyndsey D.
