

Anthony Ioppolo

September 15, 1923 - March 31, 2023

Anthony Ioppolo, a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather, passed away on March 31st, 2023, at the age of 99, surrounded by his loving family. Born on September 15th, 1923, in East Chicago, Indiana, to Leo and Angelina Ioppolo, Anthony was the oldest of his siblings and predeceased by his beloved wife of 68 years, Ann Ioppolo.

Anthony was a hardworking and caring family man, who was deeply committed to his family and his work. He was a well-known figure in the family business of trucking sand and gravel, where his industrious spirit and tireless work ethic were admired by many. Anthony was also a skilled design engineer in the automotive field and was always eager to share his latest inventions and ideas with others.

In addition to his work, Anthony had a passion for music and played both the saxophone and clarinet in several bands throughout his life. He was a proud and devoted Sicilian, fiercely protective of his family, but also known for his jolly attitude and infectious smile.

Anthony leaves behind his loving children, Gary (Kathy) Ioppolo, Thomas Ioppolo, Andrea (Kendall) Wilson, Anthony (Teri) Ioppolo, and Leo Ioppolo. He was a proud grandfather of nine and great grandfather of nine, who will all miss him deeply.

A private service will be held at Utica Cemetery to honor and celebrate Anthony's life. The family kindly requests that anyone who has memories or stories to share about Anthony leave them on the tribute wall on the website. Anthony will be deeply missed by his family and all those who knew and loved him.

“ Our sincerest condolences to the Ioppolo family. Mr. Ioppolo was very nice and greeted us every time he seen us outside since we live next door to his daughter Andrea and her husband Ken. He would always talk about his time behind the drawing board at the automotive contract house since we shared in job careers. He always had a smile. We will miss him and will have to find someone else to give our green tomatoes too since he loved fried green tomatoes. He is with his beloved wife Ann and son Tommy. To Andrea, Ken and Amber's family, we are very sorry for your loss. It's been a long road for all of you in the care of your aging parents. May Anthony rest in peace and know that you did your best care for him and he loves you for it. Blessings and Love being sent. Love your neighbor,
Gregg and Susan McInnes
