“ I had the pleasure of working with Tony at the Sterling Heights D.P.W. I can only remember all the good things about him. His attitude, dedication and professionalism inspired me. I will always admire his devotion to his wife Justine and to his family that he was so proud of.

“ Dear Kujawski Family - My heart and prayers go out to you. I read about your Father's passing this afternoon and wanted to share my sympathies with you. I can remember riding around the block on my bike and no matter how many times I would get a bright smile and wave from your father. He must have been a very happy man! While he sat on your front porch he always had a look of contentment. God bless your Dad and your family. Love & Prayers Jennine

“ I remember attending Uncle Tony's wedding and all the angel wings I ate. Jim and I always remarked on how lovingly Uncle Tony treated Aunt Justine. I always felt close to my Dad when I was with Uncle Tony, he looked so much like him.
