“ Andy will be in my memory for all time as a loving and generous man. I recall the hockey games and stories we shared about hockey. All the emails we shared after he moved to CA. were precious to me because these always rekindled my thoughts of Andy. I will miss him terribly and I want to express my condolences to his family.

“ I worked with Andy when I first started out in the business way back in 1968. A good friend, who always wore a smile. At that time he played in a band, but he would not play for my wedding 6/70. He said he only wanted to party.
