“ Tony was always full of life and love. We all will remember him in special ways:

Danielle: I always got a big hug from Tony. He watched Trina and I grow up together. So many fun times at the Montalto house.

Bill & JoAnn: Tony was always a good guy to have on the job site. He worked hard and always had a funny story to tell.

Kelly, Noah & Jacob: Ww has such a fun time splashing around in your pool last summer!

You will not be forgotten, Tony.

“ Tony, I will miss you dearly. Thank you for the love you shared with me and my family. Here is a poem I came across that helps find a few words for how good of a man you were to me.

A True Hero

*What makes a man a hero?
I've often thought this through.
Is it someone who is flashy and bold?
Is it someone who stands on high?*

*No, that is not a hero,
He's just a simple man.
Always there when things go wrong,
And who does the best he can.*

*He lends a strong shoulder
To ease the flow of tears.
He holds high the lantern,
To drive away your fears.*

*His smile was just enough,
To give you strength.
His frown more than adequate,
To make one soon relent.*

*When some had need of guidance,
His ears he'd freely lend.
Advice came in abundance,
You chose, not him, could you offend.*

*He had no need of metals,
Or glory this is true.
That's why, dear Nono,
Our hero has to be you.*

God Bless you Nono.
