“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ... God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ Dearest Susin family- My heart fell to my stomach when I heard the news. Why we ask ourselves, Tony was so young and had so much life to give to the world. Now that he is able to watch over you all from above, may his life and memories carry you through this difficult time. With a deep breath and a glimpse of his beautiful smile and sweet sparkling eyes he will remain in our hearts forever. I can't even begin to imagine the pain your enduring, my heart goes out to you in this time of sorrow.Bless-

“ Jeff, Julie, Caitlin, Sara, Robert, toddler Lily and baby Lia.....Our hearts go out to you at this most difficult time in your lives. To lose a son, a brother, a brother in-law and uncle at his young age is unfathomable, it's just devastating. We wrap our arms around you in deepest sympathy and love and we promise to be there for you through the tears, the pain and your every emotion, every step of the way, throughout the rest of your lives. Your friends being there for you is what Tony would've wanted. To remember Tony is remembering a very handsome, polite, compassionate, genuine, loving and gentle soul. His face was a picture of happiness and his eyes, they sparkled and that smile of his was so contagious! We will never forget him and the joy he brought to your world and to the world of those around him! Lifting you in prayer and asking God to hold all of you close in your most trying and difficulthours, days and weeks ahead. Know that it is only time that separates you now, so hold tight to memories for comfort until that joyous day arrives. With all of our unconditional love and friendship.....Carl, Teri, Dex and Natalie Battista
