“ I was so saddened to hear of the passing of Aunt Toni. She was such a vibrant and energetic person. No one loved her family more than she did. She was so proud of them. Although we mourn her passing, we must also celebrate her life. She will be remembered fondly by many who knew and loved her. I would have liked to attend the service, however, I only received word late that afternoon. She is now reunited with so many others from her family. What a reunion that will be! With sympathy, Robbie and Tim Mumaugh

“ Dear Anthony and Ava, we were saddened to hear of your mother's passing, we were out of the province for 10 days returning home the day of the memorial. I have the best memories of our childhood visits with the families. Aunt Toni was a special favorite of mine, she was always so kind to us and patient with our rowdyness. She always spoke so wonderfully of her children, she loved you and knew she was cherished by you. She leaves a great legacy. Brad & Kathy Bedard
