“ I had the pleasure of meeting Antonia just after my father passed away nearly 6 years ago. She and her husband befriended my parents several years prior. Antonia and my mother developed a deep and sincere friendship that continued to blossom over the years. My mamma, Assunta, came to call Antonia her best-friend. I enjoyed hearing of all their stories and laughter that they shared together. She has left a lasting impression in our hearts and will truly be missed. Forever in our hearts! God Bless!

“ I saw Toni every week for nearly 30 years to do her hair. She was always the bright spot in my day. She became like another mother to me. So full of joy and love! I will miss her more than I can say. She always shared stories about her family, it was apparent that she loved them so much! I will never forget her

“ I met Toni when she came to the US from Trieste as a new bride. She was full of fun and enjoyed her life as an Army wife and a mother to her two wonderful children. She loved cooking and baking and feeding her grandchildren !!!!! We enjoyed many happy times together. I will miss our lengthy chats on the phone. Your loving sister in law, Lucille
