“ Art was a dear member of our family. I called him my brother from another mother. I will miss him deeply. However, I am grateful he is at peace, and with so many of his loved ones. God only takes the ones he needs. He must of really needed his blessed soul.

“ My deepest sympathies to the Kruschinska family. When we lose someone close to us, we can feel alone and heartbroken. At such times, we can take refuge in our Loving Creator who has promised that He will undue the effects of death, and promises to swallow it up forever Isaiah 25:8. There is also the hope of a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death John 5:28,29, and we can be comforted by the God of all comfort who comforts us in our tribulation 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. I hope this brings you some comfort at this time.

“ I have to say that I am so angry with him that he left without saying goodbye. This all seems like such a bad dream. It is like I want to pick up the phone and tell him that this is not funny anymore and that the joke is over. I know exactly what you mean. I think that Art stayed with a lot of people. He use to use our couch to hide his head in which eventually made a dent, hiding from God knows who. He was a very important part of the Wojtasik family structure and we will all miss him so much. I was so looking forward to spending time with him at my son's wedding on September 21st and Melissa said yesterday that he was so looking forward to that wedding as he was going to be able to celebrate with Rom and celebrate into the next day which would have been his birthday. Art all I can say is that we will always love you, miss you and I want to thank you for always being there for me/us when we needed you. Until we meet again RIP my friend. Love you, Jan

“ Ken and I were just talking about when Art lived with us. He used to get up at 4am and walk around the house on our hardwood floors with those loud boots. I wanted to hit him over the head with one of those boots!!! He didn't stay with us for too long cause he met Melissa. I would love to hear those boots again at 4am!!! R.I.P. Art, you will be dearly missed!!!
