“ Art and I exchanged Christmas cards each year and I had spoken to him on several occasions on the phone. He was such a sweet man. I don't believe I met him in person either but I loved hearing his stories about going to the races at the Indianapolis 500. He will be missed.

“ Ruth & Nancy and Family:

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time of sorrow. Our fond memories of him coming down for the month of May during the Indy 500. He was always entertaining and had a story to tell. While we are unable to be there, please know that Uncle Art will always have a special place in our hearts. May God give you all peace and comfort.
