“Mrs. Aloom and her family were our dear neighbors on Shacket Ave. in Madison Heights, MI. Her three children attended St. Dennis School with the eight children in our Montano family. Seven of us also attended Bishop Foley High School with the Aloom "kids". The Alooms were the nicest neighbors, generous, hardworking, intelligent and kind, that anyone could wish for. As the Shacket children grew up and moved away, Mr. and Mrs. Aloom and Josie remained and were very good to our mother, Grace, when she lived alone in our family home in the 1980's until her death in Jan. 2001. The Alooms came to all Montano family events: baby and bridal showers, weddings, graduation parties, etc. for all eight Montanos over the years! Once Dr. Josie called our mom to offer her an extra free ticket to The Phantom of the Opera downtown Detroit on a Sunday. Not one to hesitate, our mom got dressed up and Josie drove her to the play, on short notice. Our mom was thrilled to be invited, and we were so grateful Josie brightened her day. Our deepest sympathy and love to Dr. Josie, Darelene and Larry. Your mom and dad are back together in the arms of God.
