

Austin Michael McGuffin

March 7, 1999 - May 26, 2023

Austin Michael McGuffin, a vibrant soul who brought joy and laughter to all who knew him, passed away suddenly on May 26, 2023. He was a beloved son, a devoted fiancé, a dear brother, and a proud uncle. Austin's unexpected departure has left a void in the hearts of his family and friends that will never be filled. Born to Ken and Tina McGuffin, Austin was cherished from the moment he entered this world. His infectious laughter and genuine zest for life touched everyone around him. Austin's love for his family was immeasurable, and he cherished every moment he spent with them. He was a source of comfort and strength for his parents, a beacon of support and encouragement for his siblings Jordan (Courtney) McGuffin, Brendon McGuffin, Lucas (Mia) McGuffin, Kenny McGuffin and a proud uncle to his nephew, Carter McGuffin. Austin's devotion extended to his fiancée, Gabby "Bug" Gasperoni, with whom he shared a deep and passionate love. Their bond was unbreakable, and their dreams of a future together were tragically cut short. Austin's love for Gabby was evident in every smile, every embrace, and every adventure they embarked upon. One of Austin's greatest passions was expressing himself through tattoos. Each design was a canvas that represented a part of his journey, reflecting his unique personality and experiences. Austin's body was adorned with stories, a visual testament to the chapters of his life. The great outdoors beckoned to Austin, and he found solace and joy in its embrace. Whether he was riding his motorcycle on winding roads or casting a line while fishing, Austin felt a deep connection with nature. He found serenity in these activities, and they allowed him to truly appreciate the beauty of the world around him. Austin's magnetic presence could light up any room. His infectious laughter and vibrant personality drew people to him like moths to a flame. He had a way of making everyone feel at ease and welcomed. Austin lived life to the fullest, seizing every opportunity to create lasting memories with his loved ones. In this time of profound grief, we remember Austin as a cherished son, a loving fiancé, a dear brother, and a proud uncle. His departure leaves an indelible mark on the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know him. While our hearts are heavy with sorrow, we find solace in the memories of his laughter, his love, and his unyielding spirit. Austin Michael McGuffin, a radiant soul who embraced life with open arms, will forever be missed but never forgotten. May his journey continue in the realm beyond, where his spirit can soar freely, forever surrounded by love and light. A visitation will take place at the Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home 8459 Hall Rd. (3Blk. E. of Van Dyke) Utica, on Friday (June 2nd) from 1pm until the time of service at 7pm. Please feel free to share a memory of Austin on the Tribute Wall.

“ Jordan - it's Doug from the BLD ride. I am so so so sorry for your loss my good man. After reading his story in this site, seeing the pics, and watching the video of him and the fire sauce - I wish I had known him. Please give yourself, Gabby, and your entire family an extra hug from a guy who was cared for by you and in gratitude for the time our world had Austin. Shalom to you at this terrible, sucky, no good, very sad time.

“ I'll never forget you man. You were living in Someone's garage and we got a trailer together and started working like crazy. you truly were the best friend a man could ever ask for. Even on the worst days you found a way to make them the best days. You are irreplaceable to the world. I remember it was me you and Frankie and we put a war helmet on him and kept taking a sword to his head to see how durable the helmet really was !!!! we also almost set your parents basement on fire a couple times lol !!! I love you so much bro and would give up everything just to see you one more time 😞

“ We are so deeply sorry. Austin just started working with us the past few months. For the short time we knew him we couldn't have met a more polite, kind and happy young man. He always had a smile to bring along for the day. We were so blessed that our paths had crossed. He will be missed every day. Warm thoughts and prayers to all of his family, fiancé and friends.

“ Him bringing light and laughter to anyone and everyone he talked to can't be more accurate.

Every morning for a good while at Ford, we would be holding back tears and laughter during our first-hour class, whispering jokes about our way too-serious English teacher. You always knew when Austin was around, it would be nearly impossible to have a bad day. Often times he would make me have my first smile and laugh of that day. My heart goes out to his beautiful family and his beautiful fiancé, I'm so sorry.
