“ I'm so sorry to hear about Austin. I remember visiting Martha's garden at their home back in 2003. Austin wasn't home but when he arrived, Martha's eyes lit up just like they were newlyweds. They were a wonderful match and I'm glad they are with each other in love and in spirit now.

“ Dear Quinn Family, Your Dad was more than just a neighbor -he became our close friend. Since Martha had died, we enjoyed our visits to keep him company and included in our family life It was because of Austin s encouragement that led me to the experience of joining the Sweet Adeline's Chorus in memory of Martha. Upon leaving his home, he never forgot to say a kind word about Art It was an honor to offer him our TLC in the Little Ways that to an 88 yo gentleman were accepted with such gratefulness !With sadness to say goodbye ,Until we meet again in Heaven, Art & Mary Jo Cairo
