“ A father like you is hard to find-one who's Honest, Strong, Wise, and Kind. You knowing that I was always there for you. Having you in my arms at your last moments. I will always love seeing your eyes in my eyes. I will never forget until the day I am called home to join you in heaven. I will also love you. I will miss you dearly. Your Loving Son, Brian Heiter

“ Dear Family, It has been a time for remembering Daddy and the wonderful man he was and always will be in our hearts. There are many wonderful things to remember about this handsome man: his courage to move to America not knowing English and starting a new job almost immediately. Working hard all his life, starting welding as a teen. My favorite childhood memory was waiting for Daddy to come home.It was always special- he knew how to relax after a hard day- and that carried thru the rest of the day. His love of the outdoors inspired me. He was into photography and home movies which we treasure. We had so much fun, camping, fishing. I treasure his generosity to everyone. He was practical,creative,forthright, and loved his family. Over the years we ended our phone calls this way:I would say "Take care of yourself Dad." He'd say:"I try my bestes" And then he'd say:"Say "Hi" to everybody!" Now he's at rest free from suffering and saying "Hi!"to everybody he has been missing for many years.

“ Dear Rosie, and family...Our hearts go out to you during this very difficult time. I know that your Daddy is up there with his loving wife, and precious daughter, and Our Neil! I know that Mr. Heiter Pat is the name I knew him by and Neil are hanging out, they always liked each other. It took me awhile to type this after reading Rosie's entry.. Tears were just flowin....Love you Rosie, and here for you if you need us! RIP Mr. Heiter

“ Dear Rose & Family, My sincere sympathies on the loss of your Father. I know how much you loved him and how very special he was in your life and the lives of those who knew him. It's never easy losing a Parent, but smile & know that your sweet Daddy is up in Heaven, reunited with loved ones and you have him as your Guardian Angel to watch over you. The love and memories you hold in your heart will never go away and hopefully ease the pain of losing your Daddy. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Nancy

“ I envision you dancing in heaven with my mom now. I wish I could have spent more time with you growing up but am so happy that I was able to come out and visit you a couple of years ago. Our visit meant so much to me. Thank you for taking time to record all of the videos that you did. You probably didn't know it at the time that many years later they would become invaluable to your granddaughter. May you rest in peace. Give my mommy a hug for me. Love, Vera

“ Daddy: I am so glad your wish of living to be at least 80 like the other Heiter men was fulfilled. I am also glad you left us the way you wanted to, painlessly and swiftly. Now it is my turn to finish your last wishes that you have bestowed on me. I am proud to be called your daughter, and I honor the trust you have in me. Thank you for being strong in 1959 at the age of 28 to leave your family behind in Germany, and take your loved ones to America for a better life. Because of that decision, I now have my own large, loving family of 36 years. I love you, and miss you so much already. Rest peacefully, Daddy. Rosie
