“ She had a soft sweet personality. You felt at ease with her. Barb always looked younger than she actually was. She made the best apple pie I ever had!

I was over at the house so much with Mark I called her mom. I will mourn you not being here while rejoicing where I know you are now. Until we see each other again we will hold you in our hearts.

I've had a lot of loss in my life, but this one really hit home. Barb was a caring sweet lady, she was everyone's mom, and all were welcome. I can't ever remember her getting mad, and she never judged you. Growing up we were a close family My regret is not seeing her before her passing. May she rejoice in heaven with her family that passed before her. My heart aches today, but I will carry you there forever. I love you!!!!!!

Barb was one of the nicest ladies I know. She was like a Mom to the entire neighborhood. I am heartbroken.
