“ To Tom Burley I am away, out of town for work. I will miss the service this Friday, but was glad for this opportunity to send a message on condolance. Tom, to me, Barb was such a joyful person. I loved her enthusiasm and sparkle. It was a blessing to sit by her when I was singing, to blend my alto with her soprano. I will always remember singing "Blessed Assurance" in a small group with her. She made me sing better; and her spirit in the face of adversity strengthened me. I will miss her, but I won't forget her. I will keep her colorful yarn squares and the picture of her with her prayer quilt. She had a presence about her, a glow. God bless you and strengthen you in your time of loss. But she was an angel in our midst and she must be with the angels now.

“ IN MEMORIAM We sprinkle the ashesù Or sit by the grave sideù All that tangibly remains of Our loved one, But thank God for the intangiblesù The impact of this loved oneÆs life on ours. We remember: □ the smile □ the frown □ the quizzical look □ the love the courage □ the hurt □ the sorrow □ the significant moments □ the fun times □ the joyful song □ the searching times □ the moments of risk □ the great time of affirmation As long as we live We will bear the imprint Of this special influence. This loving being has opened many doors for usù Doors to whole new sets of meanings. We will forever be sensitized As to the importance of Life. Because of this loved one, We will live differently.

“ To Tom and all of Barb's family, Barb was everything good. She was so full of joy and life. She will always be remembered for her singing and piano playing at our St. Joes L&D Christmas parties. I will miss her tremendously. With sympathy, Rose Fife
