“ My memories of Barb are the memories of youth. We often have different friends at different stages in our life and I was blessed to share my high school years with Barb Stockham. She said our friendship began in 1949 when we were born on the same day, April 2, something she felt made us connected. We played with the Ouija board and had sances in the Greenlawn Cemetery at home. We texted frequently in class although we called those paper notes. We discussed philosophy, wrote poems, and even went to the Sadie Hawkins dance together. I visited her house so often that her parents recognized me at Kroger's years later. As one of her old friends from 50 years ago, I'm sure Barbara will be missed by everyone. Her Sadie Hawkins partner - Joe Carver

“ So very sad to hear of Barb's passing. She was a kind, generous, insightful, unique soul. She had a huge impact on my life, journey, and the journey of our family. We met in 1996 and she had a part in many of our life choices and decisions over the course of more than 10 years. After she retired, we missed her very much. Our last meeting was in 2007. We cherish and still listen to her tapes and are forever grateful for her presence in our lives. We will always keep her close and know she is now at peace... enjoying the journey on the other side! Our love to her family & loved ones at this time. We are beyond grateful to have known her, and been taught by her.
